One of the pleasant incidents of the day was the parade of over 800 horsemen, which passed the stand from which Mr. Bryan was speaking. In the middle of the speech, the equestrians made their appearance, carrying banners, and interrupted Mr. Bryan in his talk, making a very impressive sight. They cheered him time and again, and fell in line at the outskirts of the crowd and listened to the rest of his speech. Mr. Bryan said in part:

CARLISLE WRITES A LETTER FROM BAR HARBOR, ME.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 -- Secretary Carlisle, from his summer retreat in Bar Harbor, Maine, has addressed to one of his Kentucky correspondents the following letter which is this day made public. "Mr. James P. Helm. "Louisville:

Many Irishmen in San Francisco were astounded at the news of P. J. Tynan's arrest. The noted prisoner has many friends in this city, who know him in timately, and they were especially astonished at his arrest. His brother, who is an old San Franciscan, is skeptical regarding the identity of the pursoner.

"Louisville;
"My Dear Sir—Your letter asking how the sliver dollars which contain a quantity of bullon commercially worth only about 52 cents each are maintained at a parity with gold, notwithstanding the fact that the government does not directly redeem them or the certificates is stead upon them in gold, is received and tical regarding the identity of the prisoner.

"It may be like a drowning man catching at straws," he said, "but then, I cannot believe that my brother is in France. There have been so many palpable lies in the dispatches about him that I am reasonably led to believe that there is a great mistake somewhere. Why, it is only two months, now, since I got a letter from him. He was with his wife in New York then, and had no intention of going to France. On the contrary, he frequently told methat it was his intention to live out his days in this country.

"The Raghish officials have been itching to lay hands on my brother for years. In 1882 they requested his surrender at the hands of, the Washington authorities, but as they had no proof against the subject of their persecution the United States very properly decilined to give him up.

"The story of his arrest sounds personner."
